always tried my hardest	artistically challenged us everyday which is what you want out of an acting class	always made sure the students knew what they were doing. kind to everyone, kept everyone on track with work.	always made sure to ass a personal comment along with the grade of every assignment	9	9
Great	Great	Great	Great	Great	Great
I did all of the assigned work, attended almost all of the classes, and put in a good amount of effort overall.	This class was challenging in the sense that we were forced out of our comfort zones, often doing things we'd normally consider embarrassing or weird. Though I was sometimes uncomfortable, I think this will benefit me in the long run,	The instructor was very open to questions, comments, and discussion among students. She was always open to assisting us both in and outside the classroom.	I believe the instructor was very fair in her grading, and her responses to my work were helpful and constructive.	I think this course was high quality because communication and expression (two skills worked on in this class) are transferable to various aspects of life.	The instructor was very effective and enthusiastic when teaching this course.	I just want to say that the instructor was fantastic, and I'm grateful to have had her this semester.
Usually participated	Artistically challenged daily	Communicate clearly and effectively		Very fun and interactive course

The course was interactive so I participated every single class and did my work as told.	The environment was interactive and forced you to be pushed out of your comfort zone. We were required to be creative and think outside of the box and I think it truly helped me get in touch with my creativity.	The instructor always told us exactly what she wanted and would help us with our assignments if she saw we were struggling. She was very kind and respectful to every student as well.	We submitted journals each week and there was almost always positive feedback attached to them. She let students know that she valued their opinions.	I enjoyed this course very much and I would gladly take it again if I could. Although I was taking it to fulfil my communications area of my major requirements, I would have taken it as an elective as well.	The instructor taught us all so much and made the environment of the classroom so much better with her presence.
Everyone has to participate. I participated everyday and I always tried my best	We were challenged, but she helped us a lot when we needed my learning.	All questions and comments were always welcomed. She did communicate very clearly.		It was a very enjoyable class.	I really loved having her as my professor. I told my friends to take her.
I was very active in class.	I was challenged daily to step out of my comfort zone.	I loved her teaching style.	Very encouraging.	I had a great time getting to know my class and make friends.	She was very effective connecting with students
I fully participate in class because acting is something that interests me in and out of the class. I also enjoy coming to class	This class has a really positive atmosphere because everyone is so close. We really have bonded over doing things that many of us wouldn't have even imagined doing. This course made me	Rachel was upfront and clear about assignments and provided a positive welcoming	Rachel gives good constructive comments in order to help us improve our acting skills and was helpful when I had questions	This is a high quality course and I will most likely take courses similar in the future.	Rachel really gave us fun and interesting ways to learn different acting techniques and because it is a stress reliever from the other classes I have during the day.	think about how acting is implemented in every day life sometimes even if we don't realize it.	environment for students			helped us use them in our assignments

I really liked this course it was nice to try something new and get out of my own comfort zone.	I really liked this because it made me think outside of the box as well as trying to stay in the box as well. At sometimes I did feel challenged because I've never really have gotten into theater.	The teacher is one of the best I've had at this college she's very understanding and one of the nicest ladies I've ever met.	She goes through our journals and papers and leaves really good feedback which is really helpful to all of us.	100/100	100/100 She needs a pay raise !
I was actively engaged in every activity and learning experience, and completed every assignment. I also enjoyed every second of it.	The learning environment was excellent. The professor constantly changed up what we were doing, and expanded on core ideas to increase challenge and learning opportunities.	The professor interacted with everyone on a daily basis, answered all questions, and ensured we all knew what was going on.	The professor was fair and comprehensive with her grading, and made sure we all worked at a high level. If we messed up, she not only told us how we were wrong, but also how we could fix our mistakes.	The course was excellent, and progressed in a meaningful and instructive manner throughout the semester.	I couldn't imagine a better person to fill this role. She was so involved and passionate, it made me feel more connected to her and the course.	N/A
I participated quite frequently and really enjoyed it, encouragement to engage was key and that was received	I was challenged intellectually and artistically to be able to remember lines from scripts as well as act it out	She was very nice and clear and very confident in trying to make everyone succeed in the class.	She liked my engagement and enthusiasm towards the class	Very friendly and engaging, take if you like to talk and work with lots of people.	Pushed students to work hard and be better everyday at what was to be accomplished.
I enjoyed be able to take such a fun class	She has increased my understand of this subject in many ways that I didn't know	Yes she always communicated clearly and effectively	All her exams were very helpful the vocabulary of Theater helped me u defat and a lot that I didn't know in the past	I love the course it was my favorite one of the semester	She is an amazing instructor who helps her students and teaches them things in a fun way, she makes the class fun and enjoyable
I participated in every class.	I felt like the learning environment in this class helped my classmates and I grow greatly throughout the whole semester.	The instructor was very communicative and articulate during class.	The instructor was very detailed and constructive with her feedback.	The course was wonderful. I greatly enjoyed it. I wish it was not coming to an end.	The instructor was overall very effective.

I feel I participated to the best of my ability most classes but had trouble doing so based on most of what I wanted to say was yelled out before I could say it	The learning of this class was great I learned a lot about world drama and the papers were intuitive	The instructors interactions were great and everything she wanted to say was put out there for everyone to understand and every idea was taken	The response to work was great I got the work done in my own time and had no trouble getting it in and I feel all feedback and grading was fine	The overall course was great and taught me a lot about cultures I did not know about	I feel the class was effective in teaching what it needed to be taught	One thing I would say to improve the class is maybe adding different work throughout it that could stimulate a students mind in a different way than just writing papers but otherwise it was all around good
Participation for this course is required and so reading the readings before class you are well prepared to be able to participate for the course. My participation is mediocre but I've been very busy this semester.	I enjoyed this course thoroughly due to the fact it will help me in my future endeavors of the theatre realm.	She is always willing to meet anyone during office hours or outside of office hours and always responds to emails efficiently.	Her feedback on papers are always detailed and it helped for future papers.	The biggest theme for me was skeptical thinking, but overall I enjoyed the class and learning about different forms of theatre there is around the world.	She's an amazing teacher, just keep her.
Got the readings	I found the class	She communicated	Her grading was	Outstanding, a	Awesome, she was done, spent time thinking about material. Dedicated planning time to papers.	challenging and rewarding, I feel like I left the course a much better student than I entered it. I am now actually looking at theatre grad schools because this class highlighted things about the major I didn't know fascinated me. Thought provoking and meaningful.	clearly and effectively, if a student misunderstood or clearly didn't do the reading she was not afraid to call it out. It made learning easier and doing the readings feel important.	fair and challenging which I really enjoyed. Her feedback was thorough and helpful with writing future papers. She had office hours available to help correct issues as well.	good learning environment with interesting subject matter.	instructive, interesting, and challenging. I am genuinely sad I won't be able to take more classes with her. She is dedicated to the content and to helping and improving her students if they try as well.

I would do our daily readings most of the time and I was always trying to be involved in the class conversations about what we were learning that week	The environment was always fun and engaging but always on topics. Which I enjoy I am a person who can get off topic easily so having someone to keep me in line is very nice!!!	The teacher was always asking if we understand what we were talking about that day and if someone didn't she would do everything she could in order to help them understand. She was always available to meet with out of class which is nice too.	As work was handed in she was always good about giving back information to help make what we were writhing about better.	The quality was always up beat and on tacks	The teach is one that I can always go to when I am facing a problem no matter what it is.
