6	She keeps everything very organized and grades very efficiently
6	She was always very organized with how we learned things. She would even make sure we were right on track with whatever else was coming up in the class so weâ€™d know what to do.
6	She feels very strongly about what she teaches.
6	Every week had a clear plan and learning objectives which we never strayed from, which allowed me to prepare every week prior to class and ultimately perform better.

P1Qb	P1Qb Comment
5	I had no trouble with any assignments because the teacher was very clear
6	in the beginning of class she goes through anything she has to say and makes sure we get everything out that we need to say
6	She would communicate perfectly. She was always kind and made sure we understood what she was saying.
6	Always getting back to students on time. Gives information on where and how to find her.
6	She designates a few minutes at the beginning of every class just for us to make any announcements or ask her any questions we have.

P1Qc	P1Qc Comment
6	She would ask us in the beginning of every class if we had any information to put out from our outside lives.
6	You can tell that this is her whole life. She loves sharing her knowledge about theatre.

		Rachel is so friendly and VERY communicative. Each class she reminds students about upcoming assignments and welcomes anyone to make announcements of their own. She really makes an attempt for students to feel heard and be understood. She welcomes feedback to assignments and any thoughts or opinions.	She always gives really helpful and clear feedback. Itâ€™s always positive too in a sense she doesnâ€™t want anyone to feel bad about their work or mistakes.	The class covered Theatre History over different cultures. So we learned background information about cultures as well as their theatre practices. It is a fun class and I learned a lot of interesting information. The workload isnâ€™t bad either.	Rachel is very passionate and knowledgeable. She is well spoken in explaining class material as well. She is understanding and lenient when it comes to needing more time for an assignment or being late to class.
Attendance was easy because zoom was always an option. Even if I had to miss the in-person class, I did not get behind.	The conversations and lectures were always interesting and if they were not, then the subject was changed.	Wolfe is very approachable and very helpful. If someone was confused or something went wrong, she is always understanding and reasonable.	I always end up learning from her critiques. They help me to improve my work and see how to improve it in the future.	I wish there was a Theater History II.	Very. I actually learn information that is valuable.
Easy to learn and stay focused on what she is teaching us				I like her teaching a lot she explains her stuff very well told

I believe my participation in this course was good, I kind of slacked off at the end but that is my own fault and not the course. Overall, I would say my participation was good.	The learning environment is very open and is a safe space for students to learn and express their opinions. Learning about the history of theatre is very interesting and I believe the instructor did a very good job at it.	The instructor always communicated effectively and would always be open to questions or comments from the students and would always hear what they had to say.	The instructor was very accepting and flexible with my work when I was busy on many different projects in and out of school time.	This course is. a very interesting course and is a safe and fun place to learn more about the history of theatre and to advance some of your reading and writing skills.	The instructor is one of the best as she understands what the students go through and will give them a hand if they need it. They taught the class very well.
I feel because I was not well this semester, I did not do my best work. Therefore I do not deserve a high grade. The professor was great though. She treats her students so well. She believed in me even when I did not believe in myself.	I was definitely challenged because I found there was a lot of content in the class about the history of theatre that gave me a wider prospective of the history of the world.	She was more than willing to answer questions and let us speak our minds freely.	She was efficient in grading and responding to our coursework. Her standards are fair and I was graded in a constructive way.	10/10	10/10	I have had her for a couple of other classes too. She was fantastic in every way in the last two courses. She is a great professor. I hope I get to continue to have her for the remainder of my college education.
I had many health concerns over the course of the semester so I didn't participate as often as i would have liked to but when I was in class I was always participating	I was challenged intellectually to look deeper into the material. The connections to my everyday life and history were amazing. It covered some touchy subjects and allowed me to reevaluate my opinion on those topics.	communicated clearly, and is prepared to open dialog about any matter to help students do well.	Very helpful, and constructive. never negative but did give advice on how to improve.	very good	very good	nope

I think I did well i attended class regularly and did my work	This class was challenging in an exciting way because I was learning about things I had never heard of. The professor did a great job at helping me understand topics.	The instructor was extremely good at communicating and always made me feel supported if I needed help or extra time, she was understanding and helpful.	She set high standards, however she gave us the tools to complete the more difficult tasks and helped me throughout the way and always gave detailed feedback on assignments.	I liked this course it is interesting and I woudln't have learned any of this information anywhere else.	She is my favorite instructor I have had at Utica and she has impacted me in a positive way.
I think that I started by not participating much, but as I kept going through the course I found myself more interested in the material and the conversations that arises during class	I think the class was certainly thought provoking and I learned a ton about theatre I didnâ€™t know before	Super welcoming, super understanding, just really great	The rubrics and grading had many in depth reasonings behind them super impressive	Extremely high quality theatre course! Itâ€™s tough due to be a 455 course but very rewarding.	Very easy way of understanding. Extremely effective	Nothing else that I can think of! Really thought-provoking theatre course!
I wish I could have done better. I started falling behind due to my poor organization and time management with other obligations. Then I had some health issues that kept me from class some days. But Dr. Wolfe was always understanding and just wanted to see me succeed. Iâ€™m sorry!	It was very interesting learning environment. I thoroughly enjoyed all of the class discussions that I participated in after we read a play.	She commands respect and authority as a Professor, but at the same time, sheâ€™s another human that we can talk with and you can see she cares about us.	All of the responses to the work I handed were awesome!	5 stars.	Great.

I came to class every day, other than when I had a baseball game. I participated in all activities and kept up with pretty much all of my work.	The learning environment was fun and interesting. I learned a lot about acting and got to make some good friends by doing all of the peer activities in class. Rachel also got us out of our comfort zones by making us perform in front of class which I thought was beneficial to my future in speaking in front of others.	Rachel did a great job with communicating. She responded quickly to emails, and always asked if we had questions or wanted to share something before class.	Rachel always gave good feedback and would even allow you to go back and edit your work if it was unsatisfactory.	I thought this was a great course that I would look forward to every week. It isn't too rigorous and helped with motivation to go to class because I actually enjoyed being in it.	Rachel did a tremendous job teaching the class about the basics of acting when most of us weren't educated previously. Her enthusiasm every day encouraged us to be enthusiastic about acting and I believe it worked very well.
I feel I put forward a lot oof effort into this class and the corresponding assignments.	Th learning environment encourages students to step out of their comfort zone and do whacky things that will ultimately enhance their understanding of the elements of an actor.	The teacher was very fair and open to discuss any problems that may be occurring. She encouraged students to reach out and use office hours to better address concerns. She was very respectful to students and in turn was well respected by them.	The teacher was great at giving proper assessments and feedback at areas in which may need improvement. This allowed for less confusion between both he student and the teacher for what as required.	Overall, the course was very well structured and organized to the meet the final goal of teaching elements in acting.	The teacher was very effective by using differentiated learning techniques to reach all of her students' learning abilities.	Rachel was a great teacher throughout the semester and a prime example of what an effective professor should look like in higher education.
I had a high level in participation throughout this course.	I was definitely challenged in this class, but everything was achievable and the professor did a great job in encouraging students.	The instructor communicated clearly and effectively, she always asked for questions before and after class and respected all students.	The instructors responses to work were always helpful, great feedback was given for every assignment.	The course is a high quality course, and I would recommend it to others.	The instructor was very effective in lessons and very helpful with all tasks.	No

I have been an active and present participant in this class. I have only missed a few classes due to athletics or sickness.	In this class I was pushed outside of my comfort zone to be more outgoing and vocal which has been very beneficial to me as someone who is often times quiet and soft spoken. Dr. Wolfe has done a great job in illustrating to me the different elements, techniques, and terminology associated with theatre and specially acting.	Yes, the instructor communicated the activities, questions and homework assignments clearly. If there was any confusion, she was sure to send a follow up email to clarify.	Yes, the instructorâ€™s responses to my work was beneficial and helpful. She has a base set of expectations that we would need to meet that are fair and reasonable. I do feel as if my evaluations were fair and constructive	Overall I enjoyed this course and learned a lot from it. We learned how to manipulate our body and voice in ways that would not only benefit us as actors but in everyday life as well. We learn how to relax our bodys and project our voice, important in situations such as public speaking.	Overall Dr. Wolfe was very effective in presenting the course to us in an engaging, fun manner. We were constantly involved in hands on activities that tested and challenged what we learned that week.
I participated a lot, from the class acting new things and learning new ways to act	It was fun and challenging but it eventually got easier as the course went on	She communicated clearly and was really helpful whenever someone asked a question	The responses were helpful and explained what could have improved more	The quality of the course was great, there were new things being taught every week	Her effectiveness was great, she loves helping students with whatever problem they had	none
I participated in everything that I needed too and put in effort when needed.	I was never really challenged in this class, besides sometimes when she asked us to do certain things and I could not stop laughing	Interactions with students were great and very effective. Questions and comments were always welcome.	We all were evaluated in a constructive way. And comments were helpful.	This course was fun and gets everyone out of their comfort zones.	The instructor was very well and very effective.	n/a
I think I did very well participating in this course. I had gotten all the work in and made sure to attend almost every class.	It was a very fun learning environment. We would do activities that made us active instead of just sitting in our seats having to listen to lectures.	She communicated perfectly to her students. She was always kind but made sure we understood what she was talking about at all times.	She has never said anything bad about my work, so iâ€™d have to say she responded well.	Iâ€™d give this a 10/10	10/10	no

I think I did very well. I turned all my assignments in on time. I think the professor makes it very laid back and the students respect her and get all there work done.	At the beginning I was nervous so the material because I am not a person that likes acting. Throughout the course I feel that the professor helped me open up more	Her interactions are spot on. She respects every student and listens to each student the same	When I did an assignment perfect she would leave positive feedback. If I missed something she would let me know how to do it right in a positive way.	I liked this course very much. I think it is a great class for students to take and especially with this professor.	I think she did a really good job bringing the whole class together and making us feel comfortable with each other.
I think i participated very well and was pushed to do my absolute best	Rachel challenged us to get outside of our comfort zones and made sure everyone was comfortable from the get go	at the beginning of every class rachel went through all of her announcements and then opened up the room for any questions comments or concerns from students and went from there	Rachael had high standards for everyone and made sure we were all challenged and gave us constructive criticism	I love this course and would take it again gladly	Rachael really made an impact and if I have the opportunity to take another course with her i definitely would
I think it was okay, it was rough to start out with but once everyone was comfortable with each other, it was good.	I was artistically challenged in a way because this was theatre. The class was not difficult, just different since I never did anything theatre related prior to this class.	Yes, the instructor did a wonderful job with the students when it came to communicating.	She put in a lot of effort when it came to the feedback responses, so those helped me when it came to grading.	It was a good class, and she had a major part in everyone being comfortable with one another.	She was effective at making a theatre class fun to those who did not want to take it.
My participation in the course was a 9out of ten I would say. There were a few times I was tired from other courses and responsibilities but I would still give as much effort as I could. Professor Wolfe was very understanding of this for everyone.	I have verbal apraxia so I was nervous about the speech part of this course. However, Professor Wolfe didn't judge me for when I messed up or when I became frustrated that I couldn't remember a term fast enough and made me feel welcomed despite my speech impediment.	Professor Wolfe communicated as best as she could for everyone and always asked if anyone was confused or had questions. If one person asked something in private, she would make a point to make sure the rest of the class misunderstood or had the same problem without calling out the student that brought it up.	Professor Wolfe's responses to my work were encouraging. She was honest but didn't make you feel that the work was for nothing and instead how you could improve other work from what we learned we needed to improve on.	Quality of the course was good and made sense for the class.	Professor Wolfe was kind, encouraging, and didn't push impossible acting standards on us as none of us were actors. Instead, she wanted us to individually improve with each class, lesson, and assignment.	Nothing else.

my participation in this class varied to how i personally felt that day. when it was a good day for me, i was actively participating and when it wasnâ€™t so good i stayed quiet	before taking dr. wolfeâ€™s class i had a previous theatre class and i came in with some knowledge. although rachel has given me a better understanding now the material iâ€™ve once learned.	dr. wolfe communicates effectively with the class.	yes, she left constructive criticism followed by a comment right after .	on a scale from 1-5, 1 being the lowest and 5 being the best it was definitely a 4	on a scale from 1-5, 1 being the lowest and 5 being the best it was a 3
Participation is basically a requirement in this course. I am here whenever it is possible but there have been times I couldn't,dn't make to to the campus since I am a commuter so she also gives the option to be on a zoom call if we cannot be here if we let her know a good amount of time in advance.	I feel as if I was challenged in this class because I am the type of person who keeps to themselves and doesn't like to talk aloud but after this class I don't have much trouble doing that because we have to do it in here so I have gotten used to it. The subject of theatre was something I knew some about but not a lot and Wolfe was an amazing professor and has helped me gain much more knowledge about the subject. The understanding that I have of theatre is much stronger than it used to be.	Dr. Wolfe was a great communicator. She always gets back to emails sent very quickly and when asked something in class, it is done. She has a welcomed smile everyday and says hello to every student who comes in the door individually. She makes this class very enjoyable. Any question was a good question. If anyone had anything to say they were allowed to ask it. She didn't take any question as a dumb question but a question that she can give more of her knowledge about to the student.	The responses to assignments were given to help us. She always provides feedback on these assignments submitted through engage. When we have in class assignments as well she is always there to provide us with positive feedback on how we can do even better.	The overall quality of the course was great.	The effectiveness of the instructor was amazing. She takes pride in what she does.	none

Participation was expected of every student and outgoing attitudes were praised and rewarded. Participation didnâ €™t feel like a task but rather just an essential part of the course, and I think I made an impressionable mark on my peers just as many of them have on me.	The course was certainly an artistic challenge in the best sort of way. Everybody was made to leave their comfort zones at one point or another, which I think allowed all of my classmates to build a stronger bond with each other than we would have in a different sort of course. Not only has Dr. Wolfe increased my understanding of the subject but also raised my appreciation for it.	Yes, she communicated clearly and effectively, and as stated earlier she designated a few minutes at the beginning of every class time for any of us to make announcements or ask questions we may have.	Her evaluations were very constructive and fair.	I would take the course a second time if I had the opportunity to.	Extremely effective.	N/A

Actively participate as this class is based on that really.	Increased my understanding of different forms of acting	She communicates clear and makes sure everyone has a good understanding	Yes would leave descripted comments	Good fun course	Effective
I am at class everyday and am always partaking in the activities going on.	The professor has increased my understanding of the subject. I was definitely challenged to get comfortable around my classmates.	The instructor communicated very clearly with the students and always made sure we knew what was going on for the week.	The professors responses to these things were definitely helpful. She made sure to give feedback on all our assignments and if something were wrong she would tell us how the correct way to do it.	I thought the quality of the course was good and very enjoyable. She was able to make the class very fun.	The instructor was very effective in her way of teaching. She made sure students were able to have fun and learn at the same time, which is the way most students enjoy.

I came to every class and participated to the fullest extent. in every activity and ever thing assigned. the e	the environment was great I always looked forward to class we got to move around and do certain things you wouldn't normally do in class.	she always communicated clearly, welcomed all students and showed lots of respect.	always positive and constructive	10/10	10/10	N/A
I contributed to this course a lot and did all my assignments	The learning environment was fun and educational	She had good interactions with students	She gave good feedback	It was goid	Good	No
I did pretty good, I honestly enjoy Theatre.	It was fun! Very engaging and just overall chill.	She communicated clearly and respectfully.	I was evaluated fairly.	I'd rank it a solid... 9.5/10, always room to improve, since perfection is impossible.	another 9.5/10, perfection is impossible for anyone.	Theater is fun.
I feel as if I participated a lot with helping during warmups and volunteering for many things	Learning environment was great. I have learned so much from taking this course	She would always help us when needed	She always left feedback on my assignments trying to help me get better everyday	10/10 great environment	Couldnâ€™t ask for a better one	Sheâ€™s the best
I have participated more than normal. I really enjoyed it although i was skeptical at first	It made me learn stuff about acting that I can apply to real life scenarios. Such as job interviews or teaching.	Yes it was the same everyday. Sheâ€™d go over â€œlogisticsâ€ then ask if people wanted to share, (I literally shared a secret handshake that we would add one thing to every time with my friend) and she was overall super welcoming and organized.	She set high standards but as long as you did the work you would be fine.	10/10 very organized and well put together.	She made me actually want to show up and learn.	She gives multiple chances to make up work. Sheâ€™s overall a great professor.
I participated in this course every class session and had a blast doing so!	This class challenges you artistically to step outside of your comfort zone and embrace your true self. She has definitely increased my understanding of the subject.	She communicated clearly & effectively with all students and treated everyone with the same respect.	The instructor was very helpful with coursework and presentations. She set high standards.	Overall I think every student should take this course at least once in their academic careers.	She was very effective in explaining concepts and guiding you through assignments.	N/A

It required me to participate and show up more as a big part of the grade.	It was an easy and comfortable environment to learn and mess up.	She is very clear with instruction and is kind and equal to the students.	She helped and complimented work but also gave some constructive criticism to help.	I thought the professor was well for this course and was a high quality professor and good course.	I thought she was very effective and forced you to show up and participate.
My own participation in this course is meeting new people, speaking/acting in-front of people which I never do.	The learning environment in this class was very fun. The students in my class made it fun and the professor too. Our professor wanted to make class fun to stay in. The professor increased my understanding of this subject by me not knowing what theater class is about. The classes were engaging, thought provoking, challenging, and fun in my opinion.	The professors interactions with the students was very communicative, helping, understanding. The students comments and questions were respected and welcomed. If you weren't going to be in class, she would email you right back if you emailed her.	The professors responses to my work were helpful. The professor had some high standards on the work that you did. The professor made sure you had everything turned in.	The overall quality of this course was that I enjoyed it a lot, I would do it again if I had the chance. The people and then professor made me feel welcome.	The instructors effectiveness made me feel so happy. The professor was so understanding if I didn't know anything, wasn't going to be there. The professor made it feel like home for a class to me in my opinion.	none

Within this course, I feel as if I have participated very fairly, and have been involved with the assigned classwork and homework.	I was artistically challenged due to me not being skilled in acting. However, while the memorization of the material was simple, I found myself sometimes struggling to put it into action. However, the professor was more than happy to help.	Not only did the instructor communicate clearly and effectively, but student questions were never underlooked.	The instructor provided a lot of helpful feedback when returning classwork and homework. She wasnâ€™t afraid to point out any flaws, in addition to what could be improved upon.	Overall, the quality of the course was well taught, cohesive, and detailed, allowing more in person activities to be done to actually practice how acting works.	The instructor was very effective at nailing the material, and since she was more involved in physical activity, it allowed those concepts to be put into practice.	One thing that I believe can be improved upon is the vocabulary midterm. For something thrown at us in the beginning of the course, it really felt like no matter how much you studied, the test was always harder than it seemed. From talking to many different people, they all seemed to not do well on that one thing, me included. I suggest everyday, a little practice is given to class since thatâ€™s when students are most actively thinking, or there are practice tests.
